The University of Maine Hutchinson Center
Presents a 2-day Professional Development Program

Inspired Leadership 2017

Diversity and Authenticity

Dec. 7–8, 2017
8:30 a.m.–3:00 p.m.

Who Should Attend? Leaders and Managers in education, business, non-profit organizations, government, healthcare, human resources and those interested in developing or strengthening leadership skills.

Dr. Caer Hallundbaek has worked on the forefront of leadership trends with Fortune 500, non-profit, health, education, tech, policy, and faith-based organizations. Here she will facilitate a retreat-style seminar that invites attendees to explore emerging aspects of leadership in Maine’s work force:

Day 1—Diversity: Includes leadership lessons by Caer... presentations by OUT Maine and Maine Multicultural Center... plus insights into ACEs and Resilience.

Day 2—Authenticity: Join Caer for a journey of self-discovery that will inform your leadership style, skills and interactions going forward.

Hallundbaek holds a Doctorate in Interdisciplinary Leadership and has taught Authentic Leadership at the University of Maine. Her books, including Inspired Relationships, focus on the core of interactions and provide insights that benefit relationships at home, at work, in community and in the world.

Payment of $295 is required at the time of registration and includes continental breakfast, lunch, materials and certificate of hours. A limited number of scholarships are available.
